

Mantra

Act ethically, prudently and with resolve. Be true to personal promises. Do unto others as you would expect to be done by yourself.

Have the presence of mind, intuition and situational awareness to see and hear others in need of help and assistance and render that help and assistance. Be not afraid to lean toward action.

Philosophy for Life

Maintain an open perspective on life

Humans live, on average, about 3500 weeks from birth to death
Trees live, on average, 10,000 weeks from birth to death

Ensure you try to contribute during your allotted weeks

Build trust through deeds and actions
Build perceptions through transparency and honesty

Build bridges through openness and respect
Build knowledge through sharing and mentoring

Build TEAM through clarity of purpose and clear goal setting
Build insight through innovation and perspective

Build understanding through context and collaboration
Build empathy through patience and shared understanding

Charitable Action

Believe you can create change
Strive to make change

Do good things
Discourage bad things
